I was on my way to Charlston when she called me from Austin
and it was raining, don't it figure like it always does when things go wrong, and that smokey mountian air got a whole lot colder when I told her "they just added two more weeks to this tour I'm on."
She said "I know it's what you wished for but sometimes deep down in my heart, I hate what you were born to do and I curse that lucky star"

(Chorus)

Cause it's starting to feel like Home is anywhere you roam
Any road you're on and the sky you're under.
Home
When you're with the band and the crowds as loud as thunder
And it scares me half to death, what you've given up to get
and all the things that you'll regret when you get home!

And I could tell on the other end of that long distance line, that she was lying when she said she that she wasnt crying
and she had to go and have a good show
And I told her "Girl, I hope you know you're the only thing that keeps me going when I'm missing you and out here all alone.
But I'm a million miles away and I have got to hit that stage, but I swear we'll talk about it when I get home"
And she said "what do you know about home?"

(Chorus)

Cause it's starting to feel like Home is anywhere you
Any road you're on and the sky you're under.
Home
When you're with the band and the crowds as loud as
thunder

And it scares me half to death, what you've given up to
and all the things that you'll regret when you get home!

ohh oh ohh

Home is anywhere you roam
Any road you're on and the sky you're under.
Home
When you're with the band and the crowds as loud as
thunder
And it scares me half to death, what you've given up to
and all the things that you'll regret when you get home!

I was on my way to Charleston when she called me from Austin
and it was raining, don't it figure like it always does when things go wrong
