Six o'clock news
Sad story about some people
Who had lost it all
The wind and rain came
Blew away, everything they own
I saw a pictures of a couple searching through the rubble
For souvenirs of all there years
But they didn't find nothing
Man it was something
It was all gone
And it hit me
Man it really hit me

(Chorus)

If everything we had today was taken away
Our little three bedroom house
And that old Chevrolet
If our whole world came crashing in
And we had to start all over again
And it was down to you and me
Without anything
I'd still have everything

I look around the room at all these things
I'm so proud of
This leather chair
That big TV there
But its only stuff
There ain't nothing I got can't be replaced
Except for you
Don't know what id do
Without your love

(Chorus)

Ohh yaaa
Yaa
If our whole world came crashing in
And we had to start all over again
And it was down to you and me
Without anything
Ohh if it was down to you and me

Without anything
Iâ€™d still have everything
You are my everything
