Your love is all I have
It brings me to the floor
I can't ignore
The way You make me feel

Your eyes are fixed on me
Your words will light my way
From day to day
I will never need a thing

You're faithful to the end
You've let me know
Through every circumstance
You will never leave my side

You're closer than my breath
You're always on my mind
And yet there's room
For more of You in my life

Come invade my very heart
Change me until
I am who You are
Come and fashion me
Until every part is how You desire

The stains that cover me
They all have disappeared
Since You came near
You made me like a child

Now I see through Your eyes
The way it ought to be
You call on me to never compromise

Come invade my very heart
Change me until
I am who You are
Come and fashion me
Until every part is how You desire

Your love is all I have
It brings me to the floor
I can't ignore
The way You make me feel

Come invade my very heart
Change me until
I am who You are
Come and fashion me
Until every part is how You desire

Come invade my very heart
Change me until
I am who You are
come and fashion me
Until every part is how You desire

Is how You desire
