Baby when I look at you
With your hair fallin' down and your baby blues
Standing there across the room
I get so lost in the way you move

It makes me reminisce
Back to years ago on a night like this
Teary eyed as you took my hand
And I told you that I'd be your man

So many things have come
So many things have gone
One thing that's stayed the same
Is our love's still growing strong

Baby just look at us
All this time and we're still in love
Something like this just don't exist
Between a backwoods boy and a fairy tale princess

People said it would never work out
But living our dreams has shattered all doubts
It feels good to prove 'em wrong
Just livin' our love song

Oh, darling would you look at me
With my heart beating fast and my shaking knees
It's pretty hard to believe
After all these years I still need you this badly

You're dancing in my arms
With a spotlight moon in a sea of stars
Oh, girl, we've come so far
Everything I want is everything that you are

I just want to lay you down
Say I love you without a sound
I think you know what I'm talking about
Yeah

Baby just look at us
All this time and we're still in love

Something like this just don't exist
Between a backwoods boy and a fairy tale princess

People said it would never work out
But living our dreams has shattered all doubts
It feels good to prove 'em wrong
Just livin' our love song

Baby just look at us
All this time and we're still in love
Something like this just don't exist
Between a backwoods boy and a fairy tale princess

People said it would never work out
But living our dreams has shattered all doubts
Don't it feel good to prove 'em wrong
Livin' our love song

It feels good to prove 'em wrong
Just livin' our love song
