I tremble at Your presence

Shaken by the Truth

That You are God

No deed can bring You pleasure

Or what I measure

To who You are

I lift my heart in worship

Taken by the Truth

That You are God

Silenced by the virtue

Surrender into awe

Of who You are

Bless the Lord

With all that's in me

Bless the Lord

May kingdoms fall

And rulers crawl

Before Your throne

I tremble at Your presence

Shaken by the Truth

That You are God

No deed can bring You pleasure

Or what I measure

To who You are

Bless the Lord

With all that's in me

Bless the Lord

May kingdoms fall

And rulers crawl

Before Your throne

Bless the Lord

With all that's in me

Bless the Lord

May kingdoms fall

And rulers crawl

Before Your throne

I want to give all of me

I'm giving You all of me

And I want to give all of me

I'm giving You all of me

Bless the Lord

With all that's in me

Bless the Lord

May kingdoms fall

And rulers crawl

Before Your throne

Bless the Lord
With all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall
And rulers crawl
Before Your throne
Bless the Lord
With all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall
And rulers crawl
Before Your throne
Bless the Lord
With all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall
And rulers crawl
Before Your throne
