There's so much more to You
Than I can even try to understand
But that won't stop me now
From emptying myself into Your hands
All I know to do is fall apart in You

Like the night steps aside as the dawn rushes in Let Your glory be known

I'm Your offering
I'm Your offering
Make Your suffering known through me
I'm Your offering
For all the world to see
Your love and believe

There's so much more to You
Than any hardened heart could ever dispel
To You my soul bows
I empty my will into Your hands
All I know to do is fall apart in You

Let Your glory be known
