Girls like you are supposed to cry
To keep the seas from drying up
To keep the flowers sprouting year round
Girls like you are the reason why
Guys like me like to call themselves
Chivalrous and cavalier
Don't change at all
I am not your call
And i'm not that far with falling in love with who you are
I could get lost in this forgetting what caution is
I could be your gentleman
Girls like you are a little off
To keep the rising costs of being normal down
So we look for all these freedoms that we've found
And a girl like you is just the case
Dressed for space
In a giant pair of shades
And your best can be worn at any length
Don't change too much
I haven't had quite enough
I wanna get tangled up
And sorted out
I could get lost in this
Forgetting what caution is
I could be your gentleman
I could be your tender loving man, baby
You don't even know how you got me good
I will never back you down
Now, will i turn around?
You give me something more
You give me something more
So don't change at all
I am not your call
And no, i'm not that far from falling in love
with who you are
forgetting what caution is

I could be your gentleman
So don't change for me
Oh, you're a star to see
Well, i wanna get tangled up
Baby, let's get tangled up
We could get lost in this forgetting what caution is
I could be your
I could be your
I could be your
I could be your
I could be your
I could be your
Gentleman
