well the future boy where are you from my time machine crashed over yonder Syphillis is a bitch but contracting HIV is much worse why are you pushing info into me I have no need for it Iâ€™m from the stars

Well I thought youâ€™d like to know your scoop Iâ€™m taking babies back with me, yeah Iâ€™m taking them back home so they can see thereâ€™s a much better place

Iâ€™ve got a sister with an open mind and my friends are all junkies but there still my friends

Well as long as they donâ€™t use monkeys we enjoy the heat, the stolen days in this winter of thosand three well the future boy said Iâ€™ve got friends but you know sometimes it all depends on how tall they are, against yourself

Well I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
I am the future boy
find your way home

Well my friends have all gone and left me so I decided to come here and see myself as a baby but it looks like Iâ€™m stuck here this time oh shit Iâ€™m gonna miss my friends but I know you're still the future boy yes IÂ'm still the future boy I'm gonna build you a time machine to get back home you're still the future boy still the future boy

still the future boy
well IÂ'm still the future boy oh, this whole damn world is your toy boy so get back on tour boy and find your way home
