VERSE

Fall out of bed and catch a fading star
Fancy I woke up before my alarm
Brought my mind through my eyes
It's the best I can do
Before it's automatic, hand it over, turn it to you Though her smile when it happens, almost as if it was magic
It means there's a god somewhere and he's laughing
And I shuffle my slipperless toes to the kitchen
Still low to the ground, but high on living

CHORUS

And I know, I know, it's gonna be a good day
Hello, hello, you beautiful thing

VERSE

Waking up and stretch my body and acknowledge the makes
It must be something I did yesterday
Pour a cup of liquid gold
'Cause my engine's still cold
And in a minute everything's gonna change

CHORUS

'Cause I know, I know, it's gonna be a good day

Hello, hello, you beautiful thing

Yes I know, I know, it's gonna be a good day
Hello, hello, you beautiful thing

[instrumental]

VERSE

Looking out from a ... (?) watching the band of the Earth take the plaque of the night from the dirt

I can see from the depths of my readjustinize of reflection
of yes's and that ever changing sky
But why do bad dreams linger long after I awake?
I don't need no scenes of valid paying replayed (??)
And I feel quite foolish sometimes when I pray
But my thoughts are all I've got so I try to make them brave

CHORUS

'Cause I know, I know, it's gonna be a good day
Hello, hello, you beautiful thing
Hello, hello, you beautiful thing
I say, hello, hello, you beautiful thing

Oh now this is what I've been waiting for (this is what I've been waiting for) Oh this is what I've been waiting for (this is what I've been waiting for)
Oh this is what I've been waiting for (this is what I've been waiting for)
Oh this is what I've been waiting for (Hello)

I know, I know, it's gonna be a good day
Hello, hello, you beautiful thing...
