You could be the song
In my silent movie
It's you who puts a motion in my picture
It's starting right now
I can hear the projector

Don't let the trailer be better than the movie
I plan on staying until the end
Dim the lights
And recite your lines to me
Don't let it be a short film

You could be the star
You are brighter than the spotlights
Who wouldn't cast you in the role?
You got the part auditioning for my heart
You had me at hello

The orchestra rises up
Please don't let our scene get cut
This is where we kiss and fall in love

So let the trailer be better than the movie
Don't let it have too many twists
You don't need no camera tricks
You have your own special effects
And that affection keeps me hanging in suspense

Quiet on the set
Are you ready for your close up
You're a natural on the screen
With your eyes you stop the motion
Put my life in the focus
You're a darling of the critics
Like this movie is just for me

The orchestra rises up
Please don't let our scenes get cut
This is where we ride off in the sun

The orchestra rises up

This is what i'm dreaming of
Let's make everyone believe in love
Let's make everyone believe in love
