I got a friend he calls him the sea captain
He lives in a boat out in the ocean
He's taking the waves as they come crashin in
He says you can't be afraid of being open

So let down your guard and put up your sails
And let the current be your guide
Trust in the stars you're right where you are
You're in the perfect place in the perfect place
If you're nervous take a moment to say grace
And take your hands off the wheel
And know life rolls on

And there is no secret you can keep from you
And there is no way you can ever be lost
It only happens to those who don't believe the world is round
But they couldn't be closer to the now cuz we're all grounded
Oh we're sailing through the sound
Don't let the weather get you down Trust in the stars they're still where they are in the perfect place in the perfect place
If heard him take a moment to say grace
And get on your knees
And know life rolls on

Don't we all get sometimes afraid of the water?
The deeper the water gets, my legs grow longer
Oh it's over my head, our bodies lie over the ocean
So be brave don't let the contents keep you down Trust in the stars always
You're in the perfect place, in the perfect place
And if you weren't take a moment to say grace
And think of the man out at sea

He says life rolls on
You're in the perfect place, in the perfect place
To think Life rolls on You're in the perfect place, you're in the perfect place
He knows Life rolls on

You're in the perfect place, you're in the perfect space
To know that life rolls on
