Well, sometimes the sun shines on other people's house and not mine
Some days the clouds paint the sky all gray
and it takes away my summer time
Somehow the sun keeps shining upon you
While I struggle to get mine
If there's a light in everybody
Send out your ray of sunshine

I wanna walk the same roads as everybody else
Through the trees and pass the gates
Getting high on heavenly breezes
Making new friends along the way

I won't ask much of nobody
I'm just here to sing along
And make my mistakes look gracious
And learn some lessons from my wrongs

(Chorus)
Sometimes the sun shines on other people's houses and not mine
Some days the clouds paint the sky all gray
And it takes away my summer time
Somehow the sun keeps shining upon you
While I struggle to get mine
A little light never hurt nobody
Send out your ray of sunshine

Oh, if this little light of mine combined with yours today
How many watts could we illuminate,
How many villages could we save?
Well my umbrella's tired of the weather
Wearing me down, well look at me now

Well you sure look as good as your outlook
Would you mind if I took some time
To soak up your life, your beautiful life
You've got a paradise inside

I get hungry for love and thirsty for life

And much too full on the pain
When I look to the sky to help me
And sometimes it looks like rain

(Chorus)

As the sun shines on other people's houses and not mine
And the sky paints the clouds in a way
That it takes away my summer time
Somehow the sun keeps shining upon you
While I kindly stand by
If there's a light in everybody
Send out your ray of sunshine

You're undeniably warm, you're so ruly and You're perfect in desire Won't you hang around
So the sun, it can shine on me
And the clouds, they can roll away
And the sky can become our possibilities
If there's a light in everybody
Send out your ray of sunshine
