When we die is it just like sleeping?
Does the light mean that it's light like in air?
Will I dream? Will I get to meet Jesus?
Or like the lover will I come right back?

Years go fast live each day like it's the last,
need not waste time asking why did my life, no holding back

Like a wind we've been solved, we sing to the memories of long days gone so do I sing along, I'll remember you

Years go fast, I'm already looking back, me, I know I won't last cause when I cry I don't just cry I fold in half

You are loved, you are loved,

you are loved, you are loved,
you are loved, you are loved,

There's a fear about leaving here that the devil you will find but if love, if love is all there ever was, there'll be peace on the other side

Years go fast live each day like it's the last,
me, I'll go out dancing cause when I die
I know I'm gonna fly into an angels hands

You are loved, you are loved,
you are loved, you are loved,
you are loved, you are loved, you are loved
