Well, I don't know just what I'm here for
I want more than words can describe
I've been deprived, can you believe it
My whole world, well, it's fallin' apart?
Well, it falls, still it falls, well, it falls apart around me

And you pick me back up, oh, said you pickin' back up
Oh you, gonna pick me back up and you get a' me high
Said at you pick me back up, oh, said you pickin' back up
Oh you, gonna pick me back up and you get a' me high

Cuz' I'm drinkin' all of the tears you cry
And I don't wish, to know my ending, mmm
I just say I wanna know when I begun
I wanna know when I begun
I wanna know where it started from Where it all had started from

Because I feel like I am spinning
I feel like I'm spinning
Well I feel just like I'm spinning I'm spinning around
Oh, oh, oh, oh, said I feel like I am spinning

All around this summer
And the winter comes and another storm
It falls, well it falls, said it falls apart around me

And you pick me back up, oh, said you pickin' back up
Oh, you gonna pick me back up and you get a' me high
Oh my, my, my

Said you pick me back up, oh, said you pick me back up
Oh, you gonna pick me back up and you get a' me high
Said I'm drinkin' all of the tears you cry
Breathing every breath that you sigh

I am
I'm breathing all of the tears that you cry, that you cry
All the tears that you cry, every breath that you sigh
