Watch with me
Hear me now
Come and see
Hear me now
Louder and louder he screams out a name

Lay me down
Wash my hands
Let us dream
While we can
Harder and harder a man tries to change

Watch with me
Tell me now
Pull me in
Show me how
Harder and harder he fights for a change

Watch with me
If you dare
Beauty hides
Show me where
Hardened hearts
Breathe their last
Pull me in
While you can

You can fight about what's wrong
You can fight about what's right
You can worry about what frightens you
In the middle of the night
With a poor man out to rob you
While a rich man holds you down
You might even find your light somewhere
In the darkest part of town
Louder and louder and louder he screams out a name
