We are praying for a nation broken down
We are gathered as a people crying out
Come and hear the prayer of a broken heart
Heal us? Like only You can do

Only You know the real me
Only Your eyes can see
What hides behind the veil over my eyes
Father, open up my eyes
Bring the real things

Open up the families and bring the real things
Open up the churches and bring the real things
Open up this culture and bring the real things
Come and heal us Father, like only You can do

Listen to the prayers
Listen to the prayers
Listen to the prayers of the dying world
Come heal us like only You can do

On the inside
Down on the inside
Way beyond religion
Way beyond the ideas of man
Way beyond our understanding
Come heal us like only You can do
