I have it planned in my mind
I'm comin' at you from behind
When your guard is down
When you least expect it

I'm gonna find out a way
For me to wallow in your ways
And idolize from the inside

I'll learn to deal with your kind
Manipulate the divine
And sanctify
Have patience

You'll never know I was there
I'm gonna catch you unaware
I sympathize
Cut you down to size

Merciful cold, cold hands
I feel for you
Simply because you're mine
I need you, I beg you, forgive you

All for you, by default
For you, all this
It's all, all for you
My fall for you
