I could never choose what's best for you
Neither could I say what you should do..
But remember that when things are going wrong
I shall be their to make you strong..

When you're alone, I'll be your shadow
When you're afraid, just stay behind me..
If you want to cry, here's my shoulder..
If you need a hug, I'll embrace you tight and say...

So fellow dragon knights we'll always fight,
Till the end of time
Though trials may come our way... I'll always stay
No matter what happens.. you still have me..

Cho:

I'll never regret the amount of friendship
That I have given you..
I don't even remember how much it is
But the only thing I know is that
You're my friend

No doubts, no limits, no reservations, and Definitely... No END!!
