for a while by Jasper Steverlinck
Lost from day to day,
So I turn another way
With a laugh, a kind hello
Some small talk with a few friends that I know
I forget that I'm not over you for a while.

We can easy grin,
And a smile to put them in,
With so many other lives to listen to
And some music that I've got to do
They forget that I'm not over you for a while.

Days go by with no empty feelings,
So I work and work and work and I forget
Until I go home and touch my hand and feel my skin
And I remember that you're gone.

People say to me, "you need company,
When you have some time to spend,
Drop around when you need a friend."
They forget I'm not over you for a while

I can't go on without you
Your love is all I'm living for
I need you there beside me
I'll love you woman
I'll love you
I doooooooooooooo
