What does your love mean to me
It's something I can't answer easily Just like the air that I breathe
You fill me up inside, you give me all that I need Like a bird flying high on a summers day You're the wind that carries me away
To a place where you and I will always stay forever

(Chorus)

If I never get to heaven then at least I will have known I had an angel here on earth that I could call my very own
And if this world should end tomorrow, girl this much I know is true
I found my piece of heaven the day that I found you

Longer than poets will rhyme
Girl my love will burn for you until the end of time
If I should die before tomorrow comes I wont regret a single day, because I had your love Must be somethin in the way you say my name
It takes away my worries and my pain Girl I know we'llmake it through the rain together

(Chorus)

If I never get to heaven then at least I will have known
own
And if this world should end tomorrow girl this much I know is true
I found my piece of heaven the day that I found you

Bridge:

Like a river flows and a flower grows, my love for you will never fade
Like the sun will rise in the morning sky
You know that I am here to stay forever

(Instrumental)

(Chorus)

If I never get to heaven then at least I will have known
I had an angel here on earth that I could call my very

own
And if the world should end tomorrow
Girl this much I know is true
I have found my piece of heaven the day that I found you
Like a river flows and a flower grows, my love for you
will never fade
Like the sun will rise in the morning sky you know I am here to stay
