What were you thinking when you left me outside in the cold?

I waited for you

Give me a reason why you never answered your phone?

Just tell me the truth

Did you really believe you could come back to me?

Pretending as if nothin' is wrong

You can call out my name and know I'll be here

In your darkest of nights I'll always be near

But you shattered my dreams so one thing is clear

You can't have my heart, my heart's all out of tears

What were you thinking lying about where you'd gone?

Girl, I already knew

It's not a secret, you've been running with him all night long

Hey, is that how you do?

Now you're back to your games, you've got no one to blame

You broke the trust in our love

You can call out my name and know I'll be here

In your darkest of nights I'll always be near

But you shattered my dreams so one thing is clear

You can't have my heart, my heart's all out of tears

There was a time you had me blinded

Lost in your eyes, how could I see the lies?

Why would you wrong me when I knew you'd see

I'd tear the walls down for you

You can call out my name and know I'll be here

In your darkest of nights I'll always be near

You shattered my dreams so one thing is clear

You can't have my heart, I won't give you my heart

You can't have my heart, my heart's all out of tears
