Kind of like a summer breeze
You do exactly as you please
Drop a brother to his knees just for fun

I think it was the first of May
And girl I can't forget the day
Right then and there I knew you were the one

Do you think that possibly
You could spend your life with me
'Cause girl this love is growing and it's hotter than the sun

I get a little bit crazy baby
Everytime you call my name
My heart beats a little bit faster
After you are in my arms again

You try to fight it, don't even try to hide it
Emotions falling down like the rain
I can't find the words to explain it
Ain't it, crazy how I fall everytime you call my name

It's kind of like a work of art
You shot an arrow through my heart
Even though we're worlds apart I can't deny

It feels like you're a part of me
The finish and the start of me
Girl you are the heart of me and that's no lie

Did I mention that I love you so
And I just want the world to know
If I could you know I would write your name across the sky

I get a little bit crazy baby
Everytime you call my name
My heart beats a little bit faster
After you are in my arms again

You try to fight it, don't even try to hide it

Emotions falling down like the rain
I can't find the words to explain it
Ain't it, crazy how I fall everytime you call my name

Crazy, crazy
Everytime that you're close to me
I lose control of my sanity
Everynight, everyday, every word and you say
Girl you know you put a spell on me

I get a little bit crazy baby
Everytime you call my name
My heart beats a little bit faster
After you are in my arms again

Can't try to fight it, don't even try to hide it
Emotions falling down like the rain
I can't find the words to explain it
Ain't it, crazy how I fall everytime you call my name

Crazy, crazy baby
Everytime you call my name, I don't know what to do
I'm so in love with you, baby
Everytime you call I get so crazy
Everytime you call [Incomprehensible]
