Witness one milk and honey
Cash-wonder splash
Laughing when you say it's under wraps
Pliant or defiant
Don't you want to buy it?

Promise wine from brackish water
Hell of a pitch
Wonder if it's really understood
Feed me enough poison
I'll learn to enjoy it

What's the new diversion,
Sweetening the poison

Ending up
Casting shadows on the tallest most of all
And dreams go sprawling.

Witness one milk and honey
Cash-wonder splash
Wonder if I'll ever see the last.
Anchor under pressure
Rancor letting fresh air in.

What's the new diversion,
Sweetening the poison
