Friend called today

Said "No more no way"

He saw things different today

Ran out of trust

The world ain't big enough

For a feeling man with a plan

Dreams die today

Too much hassle too much risk
Do you call this living really!

Inside the holes your digging

No more disappointments
Please remain seated
Your number's coming

Do not question these commands
Just walk the dog

Be a bump on a log
Watch tv until you're blind

Everyone's equalized

See the look in their eyes

No more vital signs they're gone
We've got a new dream

We're on the winning team

We're going to sleep our way through hell
