I'm phonin you
Trying to gather my thoughts
Looking through the mess I'm in Trying to sort out
The shreds that are my life

And I'm missing you
With what I've gone through
To lose you now
I'll come through somehow

And now I crash and burn
I scream and yearn
For you to be by my side
And I can't decide
How this will turnout
Because baby you are my burnout

And I can't see
How long our love will be
The only thing I know
Is I can't let you go

And as long as I live
I always promise to give Everything I have
Until the day I die

And now I crash and burn
I scream and yearn
For you to be by my side
And I can't decide
How this will turnout
Because baby you are my burnout

And I can't go farther
So why do I bother
Because I love you so much
I can't bare to lose
But if I refuse
Will I lose

All I have done
To earn your love
But I'll never forget you

And I'll miss you

And now I crash and burn
I scream and yearn
For you to be by my side
And I can't decide
How this will turnout
Because baby you are my burnout
And I'll miss you
Won't forget you
And I'll miss you
And I'll miss you

And now I crash and burn (Won't)
I scream and yearn (Forâ€¦)
For you to be by my side(getâ€¦)
And I can't decide (You)
How this will turnout
Because baby you are my burnout

And now I crash and burn
How this will turnout
Because baby you are my burnout

And I'll miss you
You are my burnout
You are my burnout
You are my burnout
I'll miss you
My burnout.
