Hey man, I've got a plan
Let's work it out
Write it in the sand
Hope for the best
And when it doesn't come
Pray to the lord above
And ask what we should have done

Time will tell if hell will prevail
We have spent our whole life in a veil
Of confusion and misconception
Not to mention all the deception of those in power
The hour has come and I'm done
With all this shit, I hope something goes right

But you say not tonight
You stand in my way and say it's okay
You say you're hear to lead
But why don't we proceed

Hey man, I've got a plan
Let's work it out
Write it in the sand
Hope for the best
And when it doesn't come
Pray to the lord above
And ask what we should have done

Another roadblock in the head
Sometimes he wishes he were dead
But only time can tell if we'll
All go to hell
So I plan to sit and wait it out
Like they say
Nothing is going astray
Life is okay

But you say not tonight
You stand in my way and say it's okay
You say you're hear to lead
But why don't we proceed

Hey man, I've got a plan
Let's work it out
Write it in the sand
Hope for the best
And when it doesn't come
Pray to the lord above
And ask what we should have done

I'm sick and tired of waiting
For this world to stop hating me
I'm tired of you
I'm tired of me
I'm tired of seeing all the same shit
I'm tired of waiting
I'm sick of hating what I'm told to
What can I do?

Bring it back
I'll take another whack at it
Can't you see
You are hindering me
Drawing me back
Making me slack
Leave me alone

Hey man, I've got a plan
Let's work it out
Pray to the lord above
And ask what we should have done

Hey man, I've got a plan
Let's work it out
Write it in the sand
And when it doesn't come
Pray to the lord above
And ask what we should have done
