Remember when we first met
Said that we would never get
Torn apart
And that this was the start
Of something big
The talk of the day
The story of the year
And that we would always care

Remember when we first kissed
Talking of all the chances we had missed
Looking onto a bright life
With you as a wife

Remember when we gazed into each other's eyes
And I said I saw the galaxy in yours
You just laughed
With little care
Because we would always care

Remember when we said goodbye
The day my heart died

Remember all the good times
The bad times, sad times
We spent
With each other
Like two brothers
Connected with each other

Remember when we wrote this song
When we got along
What went wrong

Remember all the good times
The bad times, sad times
We spent
With each other
Like two brothers
Connected with each other

Remember when we wrote this song

When we got along
What went wrong
