JD We got us one with this one
The magnificent Nick Gardner
Jay Burna's my name
I'm gone

(Hook)

Why don't you let your mind open
Emotions are floating
Your beauty is glowing
And you just bright up my day
Ay ay ay
Your rays just bright up my day
Ay ay ay
So lets just live in the moment

(Verse 1)

You put up this wall
Why don't you let it go
You hiding what
Why don't you let it show
Upload your feelings
To fall in love
Lets end the game
And start on us
One life to live
And I'm a live it well
But I want you on my arm
For show and tell
Remember half the walk in the Central Park
You part of the reason why I love New York ahh
Lights come one
And your smile going
This boat a keep going
If we both keep rowing
Take all three steps
Cause I know you for it
Haha You can't ignore it
Do I care?
That it so rhetoric

You and I is so historic
So sit back girl and life record it

(Hook)

Why don't you let your mind open
Emotions are floating
Your beauty is glowing
And you just bright up my day
Ay ay ay
Your rays just bright up my day
Ay ay ay
So lets just live in the moment

(Verse 2)

I'll paint you a picture
Some women never see
Make you shine
Like you celebrity
Clothes off
Freak on
In the middle girl
You know I keep going
Give it to me like you owe me
I will never leave you lonely
I'll forever be your homie
But lets live in the moment like right now
Tomorrow not promised
Today lets be honest
So girl get on it
You know what I mean
I behold your beauty
I know I see
So lets it be
What it's gon be
We not ever last a long time
But for now pretty lady your all mine
We got this glow
I keep the light
With your ray of beauty
We'll be alright

(Hook)

Why don't you let your mind open
Emotions are floating
Ay ay ay
Your rays just bright up my day

Ay ay ay
So lets just live in the moment

(Brigde)

Melodies

(Hook)

Why don't you let your mind open
Emotions are floating
Ay ay ay
Ay ay ay
So lets just live in the moment
