Translation :

Iâ've had enough waiting for your so-called arrangement

The future that you spoke of, just how long will it take Always have to wait till it's too late to realize that I'm lovable
I want to depend on you, but you're not there

The places that are supposed to be happy
All that you gave was nothing
Staring off into space by myself on holidays Can't find someone to accompany me to watch the sea
I'm standing outside the door of happiness
But haven't been able to enter inside
The pain that you have cumulatively inflicted It's really hard for me to be released from it

* I finally realized that love cannot return
And you are always understanding too late
Only in the end do you speak your mind
Crying and begging me to stay
I finally realized that love cannot return
There are too many obstacles in front of us
But your hand cannot let go
You'd rather be shameless, begging me not to leave

You always want me to be obedient, slowly planning the future
But my tears were constantly streaming down
In the past how have you displayed the trust that you were supposed to give
I've been slowly pushed off a cliff directly by you

From the paleness of my face
Can see the memories slowing down
The sweetness of the past is rewinding
But the feelings are already not present
And the hopes that I have placed in you
Have been shattered by you time and again
It's already broken into too many pieces
How can they be put back together and resumed again
