(Translation:

Ho

Life has a few rounds

The platform for the martial arts contest is waiting

The death consent

What have I won?

Smiling coldly

Who owns the world?

So what if you are number one

Stop the war

My generation still has martial virtues

My

Punches and kicks are excellent

Yet how come

I receive an undeserved reputation

Jiang Hu is hard to predict

Who is the strongest?

Who fights for the right to rule over Wu Lin?

In the small town the years flow past

The clear courage

The memories that have been rinsed

I remember you

Living on proudly

Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo

The forms and moves of the Huo family fist are flexible

I'm living so I should live through and complete it

Mistakes and weaknesses never belong to me

Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo Huo

No one can avoid if we use our refined moves
