"Hard Is The Fall"

Maydays of mercy, can't wait it out.
Remembrances of pride, guilt, laughter and luck.

Hard is the fall, hard is the fall, hard is the fall.
But your heart is still brand new.

Shaking the hand of the rambling man from Montgomery.
The music evangelist, the never ending quest.

Hard is the fall, hard is the fall, hard is the fall.
But your heart is still brand new.

Is this a dream or is it real?
Is this a dream or is it real?
Is this a dream?
Is it real?

Living through the hardest times is inspiration enough,
All around the water tank the loop is still playing.

Hard is the fall, hard is the fall, hard is the fall
But your heart is still brand new

Hard is the fall, hard is the fall, hard is the fall
But your heart is still brand new
