Park the car, make it quick
Wonderful, haggard girl
Pale in spite Scandinavian sun

Freckled arms, freckled face
Grass stained jeans, bruised knees
Delicate with sneakers on

Anywhere, anytime
Anywhere, anytime
Anywhere, anytime
We'll be there
Long before the others will

Undressed now, hidden in bush
Scotch tight skin round vertebrae
Clinging on to velvet leaves

Finished now, jump back in
Red hot seat burns through skirt
Just a kiss and we're on our way

Anywhere, anytime
Anywhere, anytime
Anywhere, anytime
We'll be there
Long before the others will

Finished now, jump back in
Red hot seat burns through skirt
Just a kiss and we're on our way

Anywhere, anytime
Anywhere, anytime
Anywhere, anytime
We'll be there
Long before the others will
