Tonight it's New Year's eve
Another year passed by
Will you be there by my side

I can feel tears begin
Running down on my chin
Twelve months of holding in it

New Year's Eve
Why you decide to choose me
Delib'rately abuse me
You let her say goodbye

I keep on wandering
When did you stop to sing
I hope you'll find it one day

New Year's Eve
You've come just too confuse me
And now in my rear view I see
Now look what you have done

New Year's Eve
You never did seduce me
There's not enough excuses
What did I do so wrong

I know we've both been trying
There's been a lot of crying
But also moments of laughs
