Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want more
Diamonds can never die
And so can't my lover
I searched and discovered
You are immortal too
A bottle of Champagne
With caviar and oysters
Whatever your choice is
I know what I prefer
Most delicate perfume
And crystals and roses
Will always be losers
Whenever you're around
And I don't want no gold
And pearls are too cute
There's no substitute
Because my love is true
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want
Ruby, emerald, sapphire and diamond
Everybody's going for desire but I want more
