i can't remember why we fell apart from something where we so ment to be forever was a promise in our hearts no more and more i wonder where you are

Do I ever cross your mind anytime
Do u ever wake up reachin out for me
Do I ever cross your mind anytime
I miss you still have your picture in a frame heare your voice steps down the home i swear i hear your voice drivin me insane how i wish that you would call to say

Do I ever cross your mind anytime
Do u ever wake up reachin out for me
Do I ever cross your mind anytime
I miss you
I miss you
I miss you

no more loneliness and headache no more cryin my self to sleep no more wonderin about tomorrow come back to me oh
back to me

Do I ever cross your mind anytime
Do u ever wake up reachin out for me
Do I ever cross your mind anytime
I miss you

Do I ever cross your mind anytime
Do u ever wake up reachin out for me
Do I ever cross your mind anytime
I miss you
