oh baby can't you see i need you come with me somethings is telling me that you feel the way i do i want you close to me my heart is telling me i hate the fact that i love you i feel blue even im not with you but i always think about you lately i'll be going crazy cuz im missing you chorus:

can't you see,we where meant to be baby
i wanna be with you baby oh baby cant you see i need you now
can't you see,we where meant to be baby
i wanna be with you baby

and then i think about it the love and times we shared how can i make it right i just wanna go back again there's something i can do,there's something i can say that could make you change your mind just let me know if i could stay

chorus:

i wanna be with you baby
oh baby cant you see i need you now
i wanna be with you baby
oh baby cant you see i need you now.

all the ? of all the things we used to do i realize i still love you baby boo and im waiting for you to come back to put my life back on the track all the flashbacks of me and you together make me wanna spend my life with you forever and ever make you run for me baby i'll do it for eternity

Chorus:

i wanna be with you baby

i wanna be with you baby
oh baby cant you see i need you now
i wanna be with you baby cant you see i need you now
i wanna be with you baby
i wanna be with you baby
i wanna be with you baby
