(you gotta walk away) sorry babe... ohoo,ohoo,ohoo sorry saying goodbye is hardest thing to do, when you're saying goodbye to someone who's still in love with you you can try to be kind,ohooo, when you gotta let go, of the who loves you so there's never an easy way to break a heart never a tender way to tear someone's world
apart
when you're leaving...
never a gentle way to say goodbye
when you know someone will cry
there's never an easy way to break a heart

(you gotta walk away)she's gonna cry, and deep inside it's killing you because making her cry is the very last thing you wanna do.
That won't change anything, When you gotta move on,
When you find the feeling is gone
there's never an easy way to break a heart
never a tender way to tear someone's world
apart
when you're leaving...
when you know someone will cry..

you wanna hold on,to try to make it better... don't wanna hurt her, but you know you will..
someone you love before, you just don't love anymore, you gotta walk out that door...
you gotta walk away...
never a tender way to tear someone's world
when you're leaving...

never a gentle way to say goodbye
when you know someone will cry..
(you gotta walk away)
There's never an easy way to break a heart
