Another day, another fight, another tear,
And we don't seem to talk anymore.
And I don't know if we get to see another year,
Coz when I opened you closed every door.

Girl you used to be the one,
But the trust went apart,
When you messed with my heart.
Over I got to know that you,
Coz I saw that kiss goodnight,
When he tracked you home and foughted.
It's such a shame,
You don't appreciate,
It's a shame to say we're through,
No more crying over you,
Ain't it a shame,
Just like the seasons change,
Girl the sun just don't shine anymore,

Some other day, some other night, some other week,
Baby I won't think of you anymore,
But at times I wish that I could bring you back to me.
And I told you the same as before,

Girl you used to be the one,
But the trust went apart,
When you messed with my heart.
Over I got to know that you,
Coz I saw that kiss goodnight,
When he tracked you home and foughted.
It's such a shame,
You don't appreciate,
It's a shame to say we're through,
No more crying over you,
Ain't it a shame,
Just like the seasons change,

Girl the sun just don't shine anymore,

Is it really lovin'
Is it really somethin'
Or was it over nothin'

But because we just let it fall apart,
Or was it over from the start, girl.
Coz any way that I go girl,
You go we won't go.
And everything I see, girl I see you don't go,

It's such a shame,
You don't appreciate,
It's a shame to say we're through,
No more crying over you,
Ain't it a shame,
Just like the seasons change,
Girl the sun just don't shine anymore,

Girl you used to be the one,
But the trust went apart,
When you messed with my heart.
Over I got to know that you,
Coz I saw that kiss goodnight,
When he tracked you home and foughted.
It's such a shame,
You don't appreciate,
It's a shame to say we're through,
No more crying over you,
Ain't it a shame,
Just like the seasons change,
Girl the sun just don't shine anymore
