i feel you even though we're apart and without you theres a hole in my heart ohh baby baby, though i tried i just cant adjust ohh boy what happened to us, happened to us, happened to us

we were in love we both felt the same the good thing that we had boy was insane we had a bond that would never break why we let it go oh we used to stay all night long kissing to our favorite songs tell me where it all went wrong thats what i got to know

cuz i feel you even though we're apart and without you
thought that i could get over you oh but baby that is so far from true ohh baby baby got something i want to discuss
ohh boy what happened to us, happened to us,
happened to us

i think that we oughta gotta work it out like air your love i cant live without so have mercy dont leave me in doubt saying i love still hurts, still burns, still burns i try to go my separate way, at first i thought it was okay i miss you more with each day, so to you i turn

thought that i could get over you oh but baby that is so
far from true
ohh boy what happened to us, happened to us,

i know that you saw me with someone else but believe me im over myself

thought that i could get over you oh but baby that is so
far from true
happened to us (tell me, yeah)

ohh boy what happened to us, happened to us (what happened to us)
