VERSE 1

Friends so close we used to be, baby
Seasons change and so we cross the line, we did not know
How different things would be, It's killing me
The pain that I would feel
If I had to end our love so real, so real

CHORUS

How Many times
Will you tell me you love me, and Turn around and show me you dont give a damn
How Many Times
Can you hold me then hurt me again and again and again
Tell me how many times

VERSE 2

The arguments are hurting me, lady
But the love we make makes everything alright
I never know if I should stay or should I go
And how many times
Can I fix something that maybe should stay broke

It's always the one
Your heart holds so close
That hurts you the most, girl its true
Baby, how dare you say those words
Then go and do the things that you do
Can you tell me....
