Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga
Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga

It was a full moon in the beginnin' of March, 'bout the end of winter '74
The gangsta was born, introduced to sinnin' and spinnin' women
Cats with big hats slammin' Cadillac doors Who choosin' hoes, you losin' hoes, you niggaz loose witcha hoes
You motherfucker y'all ain't used to no hoes

Niggaz wanna lo jack, track your bitches, shack your bitches
I pimps up, smack my bitches, you wanna fuck trick your bitches
I duck flip my bitches, get that cash with that extra ass bitch
Plus I keep a gat at arm reach, you ain't no hustler Yous a car thief, nigga where your car keys?

Crack topic, back block it Thirty-one long black top it, you can't stop it, gat top it Black mack, black glock it, blast rocket Sit your faggot-ass on your back pocket
It's not a game, prick

Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga
Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga

They call me, hov' the hustler, dough doubler Drove customers crazy in the late 80's, early 90's Now you can find me, girlie behind me, holdin' my mink up
Ice pinkie ring in the air, drinkin' my drink up

Top down, 'dro in the air, blowin' that stink up It's seldom that I smoke, but it helps my thinker Makes me a, mathematician about my math
Get celebrity ass, I'm a statistician, rap with precision

Nigga, your hoe chose hov', that's rapid division
Now divide yourself and slide I, young vito, voice of the young people Mouthpiece for hustlers, ventriloquist for jugglers

Took it where few went, made a few cents Don't call me hov' no more, call me "The blueprint"
Sold dope sold crack sold soap sold rap Bought Bentley's, bought 'em back, nigga can you buy that?

Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga
Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga

Purpose for man, worship Allah, then you die
Purpose of my gun, run in yo' shop and take pies Purpose of my son, raise him to do the same Clip blazin' it through your brains, strip, use it 'til it's burned out

Benz coupes, jags and trucks when we roll out Man it ain't no lie, it's real as this four-five
And real as these five salaats, whether we deen or not Our kids gotta eat, red beamer stops

Where your connects gotta meet, interrupt your cop Dependin' on the dope size, we slide it from both size With hammers with hollows you feel we follow we're both risin'
They killed your cousin you strapped and you won't ride and

Don't think 'cause I rap that I won't

Play o-dog in menace and drive-by men Real gangsters keep a bitch in the wheel, workin' the gas tank Hoes on the strip, bringin' that cash in

Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga
Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga

It's C the young gunner, they call me the boy wonder Without that caped crusader, that cake is major, uh Nickel plate stay with it, except for in school Metal detectors in school, for every last nickel get moved

Fucked every bad little bitch in the school
Good with math but I skipped it in school Ankle to shop but I'm sick with them tools Shit, that's why I'm kicked out of school

Fuck J's by da locker, come and holla, uh Out on my own, movin' out with the chrome
And can't nobody take me out of that zone, not even A.I
It ain't even a business, it's just the way I Get it consistently, flip it until the day I'm gone

Scream beef any day and it's on The same Chris dangerous with a eight in my palm
And been paid since the day I was born But these lames think it's a game 'til them thangs is drawn, uh

Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga
Think it's a game 'til them thangs come out
I bang out 'til your brains hang out
'Cause you're fuckin' with a gangsta nigga, a gangsta
nigga
