What's the way of love?
What's the way of love?
What's the way of love?
What's the way of love?
What's the way of love?
What's the way of love?
What's the way, love

Tell me your own fiction, tell me your own lies
Say to me now, you'll never forget this night
I'm feeling emotionless, my head's so clear
My enemies aren't, the ones I fear
You know your kiss confuses, this troubling soul
And I found out, that we're all breaking hearts
That we're all broken hearts

If only love could find us all
If only hearts didn't have to fall
We can't mislead to make things right
So instead we'll sleep alone tonight

What's the way of love?
What's the way of love?
What's the way, love

You are thinking I'm crazy
But you're blushing of lust
I've heard a lot of nice things
But tell me which ones I'm to trust?
The walls we made are glass
And they have been known to crack
But until then, you keep pushin' my way
I'll keep pushin' your away

If only love could find us all
If only hearts didn't have to fall
We can't mislead to make things right
So instead we'll sleep alone tonight yeah

Well, if you want to take a chance
And try to make things right
You better have a reason to be loved

Yeah we all want something more
And it is worth fighting for

If only love could find us all
If only hearts didn't have to fall
We can't mislead to make things right
So instead we'll sleep alone tonight

And if some how fate were in my hands
Would it be enough to understand
Why we feel lost in a world so small
If only love could find us all
If only love could find us all
Ahh, if only
If only love could find us all
