

The Calling

"Last night stand"

I took your heart and held it
I took your life in my hands
I clenched your soul and held it
Now you're wasting away

Our love will last forever
Last night is stuck in my mind
I wish this being together
Contemplating suicide

Oh, it's something that you can and can't explain
To see that life will have its way
Yeah, it's something that you do and don't refrain from but when, when, the last night stand

It seems now the time has gone by
You and I are old now
I wait and listen closely for your breaths return
My love died in the sea
Last night is stuck in my mind
How I wish that you could be with me one more time

Oh, it's something that you can and can't explain
Yeah, it's something that you do and don't refrain from but when, when, the last night stand
The last night stand

Oh..yeh, yeh

Oh, yeh yeh
