

The Calling

"Sunday"

Monday, work time
Tuesday, sublime
Wednesday, isn't better
Thursday, little less sadder
Friday, make time to be off with my
Saturday, can't wait to sleep through our fate

We'll go to silence our ways
It's only six days away to the sun
Alright now

Passion with me

Play our hearts free

Come up and see what Sunday means to me

We'll go to silence our ways
It's only six days away to the sun

We'll go to silence our ways
It's only six days away to the sun
Alright now, now
