Jaya - Beauty and Madness

There's a man with a burden to keep,
Now sleep will fall, washouts, rags and paperbags
Homes and lives passing by.

Chorus

Who will see the beauty in your life
And who will be there to hear you when you call
Who will see the madness in your life.
And who will be there to catch you if you fall.
Dreams run wild, as lovers find their way through the right,
Not a care in the world
And over there, oh the twinkling of the lights, harbour lights
Say goodnight one more time
Repeat Chorus
