It seems like back in the days you used to be more simple
You had your right you had your wrong and nothing in the middle
Riding on a horse through the desert with a gun
The bad guys get hung and the good guys always won
And when the gang rolled into town
Some dude dressed in white would always shut them down
They said the future had no limit
If you had guts and a gun and an idea you could win it
And I wonder if that shit was true Cause here in twenty-zero-one u know shit is pretty screwed
I called struggling in this economy
The lone rangers broke trucking on social security
Conspiracy to steel your souls
Create walking billboards for corporate logo's
Another zombie at the shop in megaplex
They keep lowering the bar in the name of progress
So if u wanna fire from a starbucks (It's Alright by me!)
And if you wanna shoplift at Walmart (It's Alright by me!)
And if you wanna vender lives at McDonalds (It's Alright
by me!)
Take a baseball bat to that corporate clan o donnel (It's Alright by me!)
If you wanna set their wall on fire (It's Allright by me!)
Judge the judges and send them to the firing line (It's Alright by me!)
Cause it's those motherfuckers that should be doing
time (It's Alright by me!)
Not supposed out smoking weed at the... of the dominant paradigm (It's Alright by me!)

And I said woowoow shit is getting rough
Remember when the cops used to be looking out for us
Officer O'Mally helping granny cross the street
Giving candy to the kids
Keeping killers off the street
Now we signed a deal with the Highway Patrol
Give em lip, you end up on national tv yooo

You got the right to remain silent
But that's just how they like it
Nice and compliant
So I'd rather scream instead I'd rather go out loud than a sheep being led to the slaughter
I'm saying fuck law and order
Fuck work, Fuck taxes, Fuck National Borders
Fuck work, Fuck taxes, Fuck National Borders
Fuck work, Fuck taxes, Fuck National Borders
Well they just made that shit up to protect the status quo
And if ya slip up then they can fuck ya
So if you wanna smash a cab in (It's Alright by me!)
Kick the ground notorious lights in (It's Alright by me!)
And if you wanna punch a maggot's straight face in (It's Alright by me!)
Make em look stupid in front of all other conflicts (It's Alright by me!)
If you wanna set the court on fire (It's Alright by me!)
Judge the judges and send them to the firing line (It's Alright by me!)
Cause it's those motherfuckers that should be doing
time (It's Alright by me!)
Not supposed out smoking weed at the... of the
dominant paradigm (It's Alright by me!)
It's Alright by me!
It's Alright by me!
It's Alright by me!
It's Alright by me!
