Have you ever prayed for something so hard but the answer didn't come Or ever left a memory so deep inside it can never see the sun
All those nights that you cried, stand your ground
Keep your faith
You're ok

When the rain falls on everything you've dreamed And the wrong turn takes you back to where you've been
When you're searching for home at 6 miles down the road
Don't give in
No don't give in It's closer than you think

Have you ever lost something you loves an searched the whole world over Just realized it was right, beside you all along
All those wishes you made all come true It's so near
All most here

When the rain falls on everything you've dreamed
And the wrong turn takes you back to where you've
When you're searching for home at 6 miles down the road
Don't give in
No don't give in
It's closer than you think

Looking through the rear view mirror never gave you any clues to what's coming up ahead Once you're on the other side it's never quite as high, as it's ever seemed

When the rain falls
It takes you back to where you've been When you're searching for home at 6 miles down the

road
Don't give in
No don't give in
It's closer than you think
Oh it's closer than you think
Oh it's closer than you think
Baby baby baby baby
