whatre u so afraid of
why u feelin scared
whats the worst thats gonna happen

standin in the moonlight i can tell u feel doomed tho nothin is wrong no nothin u say maybe a crane will fall from the sky maybe a dove will dive n die before yr eye it's too early to say it's too early to say goodnight . . . goodnight

it's too early to read it's too early to read by the firelight

why u feelin scared

standin in the meadow with sunlight in yr eye n a sense of so much sorrow u say maybe a plane will fall from the sky maybe yr lover will lie n die before yr eye

it's too early to say it's too early to say goodnight . . .
firelight
