Darlin my dreams are troubled again
Ur my friend I know this
I shant forget again
Wherever sun shines
That's where we will go
Be brave the sleep I had
Bereave the snow
You've opened my eyes
I no longer lie in the dark
I'm afraid of everything
Shadows loom in my heart
And gather in my soul
I know our kind of closeness is worlds apart
On the bridge I fell worse than niagra falls
Somehow you earned my prize
Whenever pigeons fly
Darkness, stars above
Forgive me my misfortune
Forgive the fools I've loved
I know you flew the highest
In fields of gold
I pray with all my might from dark till dawn
Don't know how u earned my prayers
I've never been so scared
In the light the moon is my umpire
The only witness to myself
And I gaze at the sky
I know you shine the brightest
I won't deny, so don't you
You've opened up my eyes
I no longer must rely on my dreams
All in color again
