What you look like
Snow white and so on
Reminds me of what I
Can't quite put my finger upon
The key piano and otherwise
Secret 'pon secret
I promise to hide

I love you but I'm gonna keep quiet about it
I love you but I'm keeping my mouth shut about it

Walking back into the living room
Where I do no thing like sing
Or play piano until
The cow comes home and when the phone rings
I do not dare answer

I love you but I'm gonna keep quiet about it
I love you but I'm keeping my mouth shut about it

Outside the window a shower scattered
Drop afer drop of sound pitter-pattered
Pitter-pattered, pitter-pattered

The wall is white and streaked and splattered
The pipes are broken the leak oh, no matter to me
Cause I prefer this distraction
When the piano calls me off key

I love you but I'm gonna keep quiet about it
I love you but I'm keeping my mouth shut about it
